JUDGMENT

Raman, J.

Respondents 1 to 3 entered appearance and they deny the allegation made in the writ petition and also contend that they have not caused any threat. On hearing both sides, it appears that there are some some property disputes between the parties. But, neither party shall take law into his hands to resolve such dispute. Hence, an interim direction was issued by this Court in favour of the petitioner. We make it clear that as regards the property dispute, both parties shall abide by the orders passed by the civil court. In case any threat is meted out as alleged, police will give necessary protection to the parties to ward off such threats and maintain law and order in consonance with the order of the civil court.

Writ Petition is closed subject to the above direction.

P.R.RAMAN, JUDGE.

K. HEMA, JUDGE.
